Managing Director, Mushirabad, Hyderabad … Respondent

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE GHULAM MOHAMMED

WP NO.14693 OF 1996

ORDER:

In this writ petition, the Andhra Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation Employees Union represented by its General Secretary challenged the proceedings No.B1/97(1)/96-LAW, dated 7-5-1996 as being illegal, unjust, arbitrary and contrary to law on the ground that the procedure prescribed amounts to unfair labour practice. The grievance of the petitioner is that under the impugned proceedings, the services of casual labourers are being terminated for the alleged mis-conduct without holding an enquiry and opportunity of making representation to the workmen.

When the matter is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the subject matter in the writ petition has become infructuous inasmuch as the respondent-Corporation has issued revised instructions vide circular No.PD-03/2005, dated 25-1-2005 while dealing with termination of services of employees appointed on daily wage basis.

In view of the above and recording the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
